VINTAGE 1977

Mariaville Central Catholic High School

Southbridge, Massachusetts

Volume 13

A large, three-dimensional brick cross is mounted on a brick wall. The cross is made of dark bricks and has a white vertical beam running through its center. The background is a light-colored brick wall.

The graduating class of 1977 dedicates this yearbook to all parents, teachers, bingo workers and other devoted persons who have helped keep the doors of MARIANHILL open. Their unselfish efforts have really given vital support to the school and have paved the way for the continuation of Marianhill's mission--to provide quality Christian education for all its students and to emphasize their spiritual and moral development.

Senior Farewell

As president of the senior class, it is my duty to write this farewell. Even though I am only one person, I am sure these words express the feelings of my whole class.

As we have found out in our four years here, high school is an important time in our lives. It is a time when we begin to grow and mature, through an education. But school is much more than just growing and learning, it is making friendships--lasting friendships, which we will always have in our memories. To leave Marianhill means to leave all the good times we've had, all the joys we've shared, and even all the sorrows we've been through. Yet, even when we are gone, we will still remember each other, and we will also remember all of you.

One of the main purposes of this class day is to bring us all together for one last time, so we can share with you some moments during our four years. To the seniors, this day is a step into the past, all of us reliving an incident in our past four years. To the rest of the school it, is a day that we hope you will remember us by--so you can look back and say, "Those were our friends."

I'd like to read a poem that I found which I think expresses our feelings about each other and about you. It's called, "The Making of Friends."

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made and the things which in common we share.
We want to live on not because of ourselves, but because of the people who care.
It's giving and doing for somebody else--on that all of life's splendor depends.
And the joy of this world, when you've summed it all up, is found in the MAKING OF FRIENDS.

Michael Mongeau, '77

Like the fool I am and I'll always be,
I've got a dream; I've got a dream.
They can change their minds, but they can't change me.

I've got a dream; I've got a dream.
Oh, I know I could share it if you want me to;

If you're goin' my way, I'll go with you.

Movin' me down the highway, rollin' me down the highway, movin' ahead so life won't pass me by.
